Susse Collection launches exclusive collection for Shiseido

Susse is excited to launch the new "Love Ginza" collection for Japan's famous make up brand Shiseido. The designer Susse Linton has supplied Shiseido's life style store "The Ginza boutique" since 2003. The new collection will showcase this August in their Tokyo stores.

Susse has a growing fan base at the store and the designer decided to dedicate a special collection for the Shiseido Customer. Susse created a chic and cute capsule collection of bags "Love Ginza". In 3 styles which include the handy "mini bag" easily packed away in your work bag ready for post work drinks. The small tote a handy companion for Saturday shopping and the classic Susse fun workbag to carry your apple laptop and papers to work.

All bags come in soft leather trims in coco leather and dove grey cosy wool fabric. Featuring the Susse trademark cute appliques in suede with Ginza girls loving their shopping trips and even there Ginza dogs. Adding some fun to the Ginza Girl's day.

Further Information please contact: Susse Linton at the pressroom at Susse Collection.
